Hi Van Tien Nguyen,

Congratulations! You have qualified to move into Tier 1 of the Qiskit advocate program!

Qualifying for Tier 1 is no easy feat. The dedication you have consistently shown and the work you have done over just a short period of time is testament to your commitment to the Qiskit community and the furthering of your own professional development.

To finalise your move into Tier 1, please follow these instructions:

1. At the bottom of the email we have included the details that you have recorded with us for the Qiskit advocate program. Please check this information and if any of the details are incorrect or missing, please update your information with us via the Advocate information update form.
2. We require a small amount of extra information to provide you with the benefits of Tier 1. Please fill out the Tier 1 level up form for us to provide you with these benefits.

See the Qiskit advocate library for details on the Tier 1 benefits you get access to.

Please note that you are in one of the first cohorts of Tier 1 advocates, so please be patient with some of these benefits, namely the Qiskit advocate swag and challenge materials. We will provide you with updates and announce when these are ready for you in the #tier-1-info channel in the Qiskit advocate hub on Discord.

Congratulations again, and we are looking forward to supporting you and seeing you progress further in the Qiskit advocate program.

Kind regards,

The Qiskit advocate team at IBM
